A shopper ponders purchasing a wooden statue at the NEX Spring Bazaar April 19. The Bazaar is a two-day event held twice a year offering CFAY residents a chance to purchase Oriental themed goods at low prices from the convenience of the James D. Kelly Fleet Recreation Center parking garage.

Photo by Dan Bowen

The Japanese tugboat Shinano guides the amphibious command ship USS Blue Ridge (LCC 19) toward the pier at CFAY April 17 after an underway period to conduct a Unit-Level Training Assessment-Certification (ULTRA-C).

U.S. Navy photo by MC3 Daniel Viramontes

Yokosuka Middle School (YMS) eighth-grade students spent the day at Midorigaoka Junior High School in Yokosuka for an opportunity to learn about Japanese schools and customs. Previously, students and teachers from Midorigaoka spent the day at YMS learning about American schools while practicing their English language skills.

Photo by Dale N. Duncan Jr.

(Right) Ikego Boy Scout Troop 13 Scoutmaster Clement Mosseri helps prepare food for his scouts, Japanese scout leaders from Tokyo, and webelos and parents from Pack 33 during a campfire cookout at Ikego Campgrounds March 18. The scouts sang songs, performed skits and played outdoor games.

Photo courtesy of Ikego Boy Scout Troop 13

Konnichiwa

(Center) FAST Company Pacific Sgt. Reginald Lamotey helps build a machine gun bunker with sand bags during training held behind Navy Federal Credit Union April 23.

Photo by Yuji Kawabe

| | |
|---|---|
| Where is your home town? | Salt Lake City, Utah. |
| How long have you been in Japan? | Six months. |
| What is your favorite food? | Fufu and peanut butter soup (African dish). |
| What is your life goal? | To be remembered as being a good person. |