First-grade students show off their "Day 100 glasses" as The Sullivans School joined other DoDD elementary schools in celebrating the 100th day of school by providing students with a full day of fun activities involving the number 100.
Photo by Jane Froehlke

USS John S. McCain (DDG 56) Executive Officer Lt. Cmdr. Robert Ogden serves an order during the ship's "Mongolian Barbecue Night" March 2. McCain is currently underway and serving as the flagship for exercise Multi-Sail.
U.S. Navy photo by MC2 Byron C. Linder

Sailors from USS Hopper (DDG 70) pose with students of Ikego Elementary School after a visit to the school Feb. 24. The Sailors read to the students and donated 150 books to the school library. Hopper is part of Destroyer Squadron 31 in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii and is currently operating in the 7th Fleet area of responsiblity.
Photo by Scott Finlay

Yokohama Mayor Hiroshi Nakada and CFAY Commanding Officer Capt. Daniel Weed sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for disaster preparedness and response operations Feb. 20. The MOU establishes areas of coordination and cooperation in order to protect the lives and safety of people working and living in the city of Yokohama and aboard CFAY.
Photo by Rieko Fujita

Byrd Elementary School student Madison Frisbie and her mother, Lila Frisbie, try to estimate the number of cookies in the jar. The person with the closest estimate won the jar of cookies. Byrd School kindergarten and first-grade teachers held a Parents Night to inform parents about their children's math and reading programs.
Photo by Nancy Turner

Housing Specialist Kouji Ishikawa, Housing Director Lucky Hawkins and Housing Specialists Toshihiro Tsuruoka, Makoto Okuzono, Takamasa Ishii, Jason Loftis, Yumiko Hasumi, Naomi Kamezaki-Hendges, Miki Ceselsky, So Koshimizu, Akira Kudoh and Hiroyuki Hayashi from the Yokosuka Housing Welcome Center received sustained superior performance awards from Commander Fleet Activities Yokosuka at a recent awards ceremony.
Photo courtesy of Yokosuka Housing Welcome Center