Release #JB009-14

Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam to Host Blue Angels Sept. 27-28

What: Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam “Wings Over the Pacific” Air Show featuring the Blue Angels, U.S. Navy’s world-famous flight demonstration squadron.

When: Sept. 27 & 28, 2014, from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Where: Hickam Field on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii

Details: The Blue Angels flight demonstration will use the F/A-18 Hornet aircraft, to exhibit the choreographed refinement of skills possessed by all naval aviators. The Leap Frogs, the United States Navy Parachute Team will also perform, and there will be demonstrations by Blue Angels C-130 Hercules support aircraft affectionately known as “Fat Albert” and a C-17. “Wings Over the Pacific” will offer static displays of vintage and modern aircraft, food booths and an Xtreme Fun Zone for the kids featuring rides, games and more. The show is free and open to the general public. Security restrictions will be in place. For more information visit www.wingsoverthepacific.com.

Quotes: From Navy Capt. Stan Keeve, commander of Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam:

“On behalf of our Navy and Air Force community, I invite you to join our `ohana for this great event. We think you will be entertained by the Blue Angels and other air show performers, and you will have an opportunity to see static displays of a variety of aircraft.”

“Members of our armed services are forward-deployed around the world today – dedicated to supporting our freedoms. As you enjoy the air show, please keep this in mind as you witness firsthand the dedication, integrity and professionalism of your service members.”

Background: The mission of the United States Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron is to showcase the pride and professionalism of the United States Navy and Marine Corps and inspire a culture of excellence and service to country by conducting flight demonstrations and community outreach.
