Alexsus Hielscher, a Yokosuka Middle School student (YMS), releases her bowling ball to pick up a spare, when students from YMS 7th grade Team Shiloh took a break from their end-of-quarter studies and headed to the CFAY bowling alley to celebrate another successful year June 3.

Photo by Dale N. Duncan Jr.

(Left-Right) CFAY Public Works Officer Cmdr. Tim Dewitt, April Young, Nizzah Bradley, CFAY Commanding Officer Capt. Daniel Weed, Anita Stark and Tricia Marino cut the ribbon during a ceremony officially opening the Ombudsman Park located next to Chilis May 21.

Photo by Yuji Kawabe

(Right) CFAY Commissary Sales Store Clerk, Fely Garcia helps ETC (SW/AW) Dominique Taylor from SRF-JRMC place a special order for a fundraiser May 10 on board CFAY. Commissary items can be special ordered, by the case, by filling out and submitting a special order form.

Photo by Natasha Sears

The officers and crew of the Arleigh Burke-class guided-missile destroyer USS Mustin (DDG 89) pose for a group photo under the ship's screws at a Fleet Activities Yokosuka dry dock May 27. Mustin is in dry dock for ship repair availability.

Photo by MC3 Andrew Ryan Smith

Konnichiwa

FISC Yokosuka Liaison Officer Lt. j.g. Amphay Souksavatdy reviews the pre-event for a green belt rapid improvement project(RIE).

Photo by Yuji Kawabe

Where is your hometown?	Santa Maria, CA.
How long have you worked on base?	Five months.
What is your favorite food?	Pho.
What is your life goal?	To have no regrets.

Senior Chief Logistics Specialist Adrian Pecadeso, an AWARE and Alcohol Drug Abuse Management Supervisor instructor, gives Sailors from USS George Washington (CVN 73) anti-drug and alcohol training at Patriot's Landing May 5. The training emphasized the Navy's "Right Spirit" campaign, encouraged Sailors to seek help for their problems from avenues other than alcohol and showcased many of the myths and truths associated with alcohol misuse.

Photo by MCSN Mike Mulcare