Annual Force Protection Exercise set for Feb. 2 – 13 - SOLID CURTAIN-CITADEL SHIELD 2015 will be Feb. 2 - 13. This Force Protection exercise, conducted by Commander, U.S. Fleet Forces Command (USFF) and Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC), will take place on all CONUS Navy installations. While this exercise will impact the Naval Construction Battalion Center during the 13 days, the base will be significantly impacted in the afternoon Feb. 11 and the morning of Feb. 12. This will primarily involve gate closures, shelter in place and stop movement orders. All personnel should review safety and security procedures, and inform family members of the pending disruption to base services and base access. Exercises like this enhance training and readiness of our security personnel. This is an annual exercise and is not in response to any specific threat. Stay tuned to Facebook at www.facebook.com/ncbcgulfport for the fastest updates during the exercise period.

Energy Savings Tip - Going to lunch? Remember to give your computer monitor a break! Before you step away for your lunch hour or coffee break, turn off your computer's monitor, or put it in "sleep" mode. Either of these actions significantly reduces the amount of energy consumed by the computer. The U.S. Department of Energy suggests turning your monitor off or putting the computer to sleep before breaks of more than 20 minutes, and turning the computer off entirely if you plan on being away from your desk for two hours or more.

Key and Lock Control Semi-Annual Inventories now due - Formal semi-annual inventories for the base Key and Lock Control Program are due in January and July.
