

110809-N-TO330-077 ATSUGI, Japan (Aug. 9, 2011) – Michele Washington, commissary employee, cuts up bits of rotisserie chicken for sampling as part of its introduction to the commissary at Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi. The introduction of the rotisserie chicken to the store was a project that the commissary had been working on with Capt. Eric Gardner, the commanding officer of NAF Atsugi. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Apprentice Vivian Blakely/Released)

110809-N-TO330-112 ATSUGI, Japan (Aug. 9, 2011) – Capt. Eric Gardner, commanding officer (CO) of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi prepares to cut the ribbon along with Command Master Chief Carlton Duncan and Rose Castro, store director, as an introduction of rotisserie chicken to the commissary at NAF Atsugi. The introduction of the rotisserie chicken to the store was a project that the commissary had been working on with Capt. Eric Gardner, the commanding officer of NAF Atsugi for over a year. (U.S.

Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Apprentice Vivian Blakely/Released)

110809-N-TO330-121 ATSUGI, Japan (Aug. 9, 2011) – Capt. Eric Gardner, commanding officer (CO) of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi is the first to choose a bag of rotisserie chicken after a ribbon cutting ceremony that premiered the item at the commissary on NAF Atsugi. The introduction of the rotisserie chicken to the store was a project that the commissary had been working on with the CO of NAF Atsugi. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Apprentice Vivian Blakely/Released)