

120324-N-TO330-311 AYASE, Japan (Mar. 24, 2012) – Capt. Steven Wieman, commanding officer of Naval Air Facility Atsugi, talks to Little League baseball players at a Kamiseya baseball field about his memories and lessons from playing baseball in his youth. The event was held to assist in building stronger relationships through baseball games and traditional American and Japanese food. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Vivian Blakely/Released)

120324-N-TO330-692 AYASE, Japan (Mar. 24, 2012) – Little League players bow to each other in respect before beginning the first of four games to be played on the baseball field at Kamiseya. The event was held to assist in building stronger relationships through baseball games and traditional American and Japanese food. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Vivian Blakely/Released)

120324-N-TO330-718 AYASE, Japan (Mar. 24, 2012) – Capt. Steven Wieman, commanding officer of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi, throws the first pitch at a Little League game between the youth of Seya Ward and NAF Atsugi on a baseball field at Kamiseya. The event was held to assist in building stronger relationships through baseball games and traditional American and Japanese food. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Vivian Blakely/Released)