

120524-N-OX321-046 AYASE, Japan (May 24, 2012) – Builder 2nd Class John Wrightman explains the importance of tool safety to members of the Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi community as part of the base's annual safety fair held at Club Trilogy. The safety fair was held to educate Sailors about potential dangers both on and off duty for the upcoming summer season. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120524-N-OX321-087 AYASE, Japan (May 24, 2012) - Logistics Support Chief Joselito Ocampo test out his situational awareness on the motorcycle simulator along with Larry the Crash Car Dummy as part of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi's annual safety fair held at Club Trilogy. The safety fair was held to educate Sailors about potential dangers both on and off duty for the upcoming summer season. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120524-N-OX321-109 AYASE, Japan (May 24, 2012) – Sailors from Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi, look over free health DVDs at the Public Health booth during NAF Atsugi's annual safety fair held at Club Trilogy. The safety fair was held to educate Sailors about potential dangers both on and off duty for the upcoming summer season. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120524-N-OX321-189 AYASE, Japan (May 24, 2012) – Fire Controlman 1st Class Jason Schannot ducks under a table during an earthquake simulation in the Earthquake Experience Vehicle at the Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi's annual safety fair held at Club Trilogy. The safety fair was held to educate Sailors about potential dangers both on and off duty for the upcoming summer season. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Kegan E. Kay/Released)