

120917-N-TO330-047 AYASE, Japan (Sept. 17, 2012)
– Yeoman Chief Christopher Crawford (left) instructs Hospital Corpsman 1st Class Willie Mercado and Master-at-Arms 1st Class Rainier Tiu on pamphlet distribution of the Combined Federal Campaign-Overseas (CFC) information during the event kickoff at the Far East Café on Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi. In the previous year, the community of Atsugi raised about $194,000 through the CFC, a program that allows service members to donate to various charities around the world. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Vivian Blakely/Released)

120917-N-TO330-075 AYASE, Japan (Sept. 17, 2012)
– Capt. Steven Wieman, commanding officer of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi, speaks to Sailors about the importance of their contributions made through the Combined Federal Campaign-Overseas (CFC) program during the CFC Kickoff held at Far East Café on NAF Atsugi. In the previous year, the community of Atsugi raised about $194,000 through the CFC, a program that allows service members to donate to various charities around the world. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Vivian Blakely/Released)

120917-N-TO330-100 AYASE, Japan (Sept. 17, 2012)
– Capt. Steven Wieman (right), commanding officer of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi cuts the cake alongside Yeoman Chief Christopher Crawford during the Combined Federal Campaign-Overseas (CFC) Kickoff held at the Far East Café on NAF Atsugi. In the previous year, the community of Atsugi raised about $194,000 through the CFC, a program that allows service members to donate to various charities around the world. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Vivian Blakely/Released)