Naval Weapons Station Yorktown-Cheatham Annex opens new cottages, campsites for military

YORKTOWN— Naval Weapon Station (WPNSTA) Yorktown-Cheatham Annex (CAX) is hosting a grand opening for its 16 new cottages, 50 Recreation Vehicle (RV) hook-up sites and 20 new tent campsites on Friday, March 30, at 1:00 p.m. at the Morale, Welfare & Recreation (MWR) Outdoor Recreation facility at CAX.

The MWR Outdoor Recreation facility provides year-round services for active duty, reserve and retired military and their dependents. Along with cottages, RV sites and campsites, MWR Outdoor Recreation has boat and kayak rentals, mountain bikes and fishing gear ... Enough to make any family vacation a memorable one.

Of the 16 new cottages, six are two bedroom units and ten are three bedroom units. Included with the cottages and RV sites is a new comfort facility that has showers, a laundry room and lounge. The project cost $6.5 million dollars and a year-and-a-half to complete.

MWR Outdoor Recreation at CAX is the premier facility on the East Coast for U.S. military and their dependents to vacation in the heart of the Historic Triangle.
