

Commander, Navy Installations Command

Washington Navy Yard
Bldg 111
716 Sicard Street SE
Washington, DC 20374
202-433-4019

CNIC Hosts Transition Webinar for Families

By Commander, Navy Installations Command Public Affairs Staff

WASHINGTON – CNIC is hosting a Transition Assistance Program (TAP) Webinar for Families on July 18, 9-10 a.m. EDT. This webinar offers an introduction to a new on-demand TAP training series that has been designed specifically for transitioning families.

Military Families in Transition (MFIT), offers four subject modules to help service members and their families make a smooth transition into civilian life. It provides an overview of the services at Fleet and Family Support Centers (FFSC), reviews the pre-separation checklist (DD Form 2648), provides a brief overview of veterans' benefits, and the Department of Labor's (DOL) Employment Workshop.

To register for the webinar, go to <http://zeiders.adobeconnect.com/mfitshowcase/>. Type your name in the box next to the "Enter as a Guest" label then click "Enter." The classroom will open in a new screen window (disable pop-up blocker). For assistance email the LMS Helpdesk at learning@zeiders.com. Questions may be directed to Cathy Douglas, Ed.D. at cathy.douglas.ctr@navy.mil or call 202-433-3716.