Applicant Information

Note: If you find errors or incorrect data on your voucher, contact your servicing Navy College Office immediately.

To ensure you are fully aware of the benefits and responsibilities involved with the Tuition Assistance (TA) Program, please take a moment to review some of the highlighted information below.

- The Navy will pay for 16 semester hours or 24 quarter hours per fiscal year. TA will cover up to $250/per semester hour or $166.67 a quarter hour. Waivers may be requested and granted to exceed the semester/quarter hour cap, but total amount may not exceed $4,500 in a single fiscal year.
- Students are required to produce a grade of “D” or higher. Should a student not have success in passing a class, the student will be required to reimburse the Navy 100% of the TA provided for the course.
- Should a student choose to withdraw from a class after the course start date, the student may be responsible for reimbursing partial or full amount of TA. Student should contact NCO immediately for further guidance.
- Textbooks and e-resource learning fees are not covered by TA.
- NAVADMIN 042/08 stipulates students must obtain a degree plan (also referred to as SOCNAV Agreement or Official Evaluation) and provide a copy to their servicing NCO. In addition, the NAVADMIN covers other policies and procedures for participation in the TA program.
- Officers: Please note a two-year obligation exists for utilizing TA. TA used within the last two years of an officers billeting may cause the officer to incur additional service or financial reimbursement to the Navy.

For further questions regarding TA, visit the Navy College Program Website at <https://www.navycollege.navy.mil/> or contact your serving Navy College Office.
