Human skeletal remains found near Pearl Harbor bike path

(PEARL HARBOR-HICKAM, HI) – The Naval Criminal Investigative Service is investigating the discovery of human skeletal remains found near Blaisdell Park along the Pearl Harbor bike path. A fisherman reported discovering the remains at approximately 10:30 a.m. today in three to four inches of mud, about 10 to 14 yards from the shoreline. The remains appear to be very old.

The Honolulu Police Department, which received the initial call, State DLNR and Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam Base Police are assisting in the investigation.
