

SCHOOLS IN GUAM

Active duty military, DoD employees on a transportation agreement or in “transferable positions”, and Federal employees certified by their agencies may choose to enroll their children in DoD DDESS Guam District Schools, public schools, private schools or to homeschool. However, parents choosing to enroll their children in schools other than DDESS Guam Schools, will be responsible for paying any potential costs. Majority of military service members' children attend the 4 DDESS Guam Schools. Parents are highly encouraged to hand-carry copies of school records such as report cards, test results, IEP, and other records that may help with student placement.
