Hickam Elementary School hosts Sept. 11th assembly and parade

What: Hickam Elementary School September 11 Remembrance March

When: Thursday, September 11, 2014, 9 – 10 a.m.

Where: Hickam Elementary School, located on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam (JBPHH)

The event starts at Hickam Elementary School with a commemoration assembly beginning at 9 a.m., followed by a commemorative march. The march will begin at Manzelman Circle, onto Eight and Ninth Avenues, and back to Hickam Elementary School.

Who: Hickam Elementary School faculty and students, Royal Hawaiian Band, Radford High School Band and JROTC color guard, representatives from Mokulele Elementary School, Federal Fire Department, and JBPHH Security Forces.

Background: As a student body of military parents and a school located on Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hickam Elementary takes pride in remembering the events of September 11, 2001 as a reminder to keep ever vigilant and to never forget the fallen. About 700 participants are expected, including more than 630 students.

Contact: Media interested in attending must respond no later than 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 10. Contact LTJG Blake Vaughn at 473-2920 or blake.vaughn@navy.mil. Media will meet the Public Affairs escort at the JBPHH Pass & ID Office parking lot located outside Nimitz Gate at 8:15 a.m., Sept. 11, for escort to the event.
