Jobs for Foreigners in Japan: http://www.gaijinpot.com/job_search.php

If you are thinking of working off-base or out of your home on-base, you will need to go to the Staff Judge Advocate office located in Building C-5, 243-7335 and pick-up a packet that explains the rules and regulations. For employment off-base you are required to get an endorsement from your sponsor's command and return the completed package to the Staff Judge Advocate office for final approval. This process can take between 2-4 weeks. For employment from your home on-base there are a few more steps that must be completed prior to turning into the Staff Judge Advocate office. A Japan work visa is not required for SOFA personnel.

Modeling Opportunities in Japan:

Twice a year Fleet and Family Service Center (FFSC) host a modeling fair. They invite modeling companies' on-base to recruit models. There are usually 10-15 companies that participate in this fair. There is NO CHARGE for registering with any of the agencies in attendance. The modeling agencies look for all ages, shapes, sizes and types. The modeling agencies require you to have an off-base bank for payment. You must have approval from Staff Judge Advocate for off-base employment.
