Who May Apply

Permanent and temporary Appropriated Funds (APF) local national employees serviced by Civilian Human Resources, Naples, Italy.

Description of Duties

The purpose of this position is to enhance the learning of the Italian language and foster cultural appreciation of the host nation. The Host Nation Teacher collaborates with fellow educators to deliver the highest quality instruction to the Naples Elementary School students. Specifically, the Host Nation teacher will teach the Host Nation standards while utilizing curriculum guides, units of study, instructional materials, and community resources into lesson plans at the appropriate level of the learner. Develops and refines lessons in the Host Nation language by following the Host Nation Scope and Sequence Standards to reflect both language and culture. The educator will use DoDEA curriculum to develop units of study that include standards, assessments, and learning activities. Applies strategies for increasing students' target language use throughout the instructional period. Collaborates and meets with parents, fellow educators, and students to facilitate a cooperative effort. Serves as a point of contact and liaison with the Host Nation culture and community. Responsible for maintaining daily attendance, grades, and other records as well as for arranging school exchange visits, trip arrangements, conferences and meetings. This position requires that a pre-study trip information and follow up instruction and evaluation be provided. The Host Nation Teacher must be able to meet and deal with a variety of people to include serving as a conduit between the two educational systems. The Host Nation teacher must possess strong interpersonal skills and be an independent, creative, problem-solver. Incorporates current technologies utilized in either educational system to plan and produce high-quality project based curriculum. When assigned, supervises extracurricular or special activities, playground, lunchroom and use of the library. Submits reports to the principal giving information on major activities engaged in; assistance given to teacher; and makes comments or recommendations as necessary.
