Where Do I Pay My Bill?

Electricity, Tokyo Gas, and Telephone bills can be paid at any bank, post office, convenience store listed below, or directly to the company. You can pay bills that have a barcode at these convenience stores.

Water bills can be paid at any bank, post office or at City Hall (8th floor) You can pay bills that have a barcode at these convenience stores.
Reading Your Japanese Utility Bill

Reading your bills is described in the following pages. Note that all due dates are written month first then date billing periods are written year first (year in Japanese emperor’s reign), next is the month, and last is the date.

Please check the customer name on the bill to ensure that you pay only your bill. If you don’t know your name in Japanese, the FFSC will provide a sample upon request.