

Crediting Military Service for Civilian Retirement

In general, a period of military service is creditable for retirement under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) and Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS), subject to the following conditions:

The military service was performed before the date of separation from civilian employment upon which title to annuity is based;

It was active duty;

It was not included in the computation of military retired pay, or if it was included in retired pay, the retired pay was awarded based on disability incurred in combat with an enemy of the United States or caused by an instrumentality of war and incurred in the line of duty during a period of war; or granted under the provisions of chapter 67, title 10, of the U.S. Code;

It was honorable service; and

A deposit is made for military service when applicable.
