Task List

As a Junior Position Classification Specialist (Classifier) of the Japanese National (JN) Classification Division at Human Resources Office (HRO) Yokosuka, serves as a Position Management (PM) and Position Classification Adviser and handles classification actions for commands and organizations serviced by both HRO Yokosuka Region and Satellite sites.

1. Advisory Duties: Provides a wide range of PM and classification advice and consultation to serviced commands by recommending efficient and cost effective organization planning and approaches, advising position and organization designs, identifying, evaluating, and integrating the widest range of considerations into proposing management options and problem solving efforts, etc. Consults with and receives guidance from Senior Specialists on complex matters.

(10%)

2. Position Classification (General): Reviews and studies classification actions requested by management, which contain proposed Position Description(s) (PDs), current/proposed organization chart(s), mission/functional statement, and PM report. Reviews related MLC/IHA/USCS PD(s), meets with the requesting management official, conducts desk audits, and collects further information/data as necessary. May study U.S. classification standards and appeal decisions to deepen understanding of the occupation/job requirements. Researches U.S. and GOJ regulations, etc. and recommends or confirms appropriate licensing requirements. Prepares desk audit report, interprets and applies position classification standards called Job Definitions (JDs), determines and recommends proposed classification (position title, grade, JD#, and Language Proficiency Level (LPL)) by preparing evaluation report and submits via division supervisor to the Contracting Officer's Representative (COR)/Indirect Hire Agreement Representative (IHAR) for approval of the PD as the Principal Classifier. Consults with and receives guidance and interpretation from Senior Specialists and Supervisor. Also reviews all MLC/IHA recruitment and placement action requests and projected retiree list, and determines the need for PD updates prior to refill. Provides recurring PM/Classification briefings to commands' personnel liaisons and management officials.

(50%)

3. Special Projects: Participates in planning, coordinating, and handling Special projects, such as major reorganizations and command realignments, submission of new or revised JDs proposed by customer commands to Foreign Labor Office (FLO), mass position review with implementation of new JDs, region wide classification consistency review, periodic classification maintenance review, etc., which all require close coordination/communication with COR/IHAR, FLO, HRO Satellite Chiefs/Specialists, and customers.

(25%)

4. Employment Related: Assists Senior Specialists and Supervisor in communicating and coordinating incumbency approaches and notifying Government of Japan (GOJ) with the JN Employment Division for major reorganizations and other sensitive actions. While in the Classification Division, good knowledge of employment side of the regulations, practices, operations, and processing is required. Cross trained in the employment side of the operations and may assist employment actions as workload requires.
