TASK LIST
PROCUREMENT CLERK, IHA 1-4

Performs non-professional accounting work in maintaining a prescribed accounting system which is operated on a double-entry basis and which includes asset, liability, income, expense, capital or ownership and budgetary accounts. Typical duties include coding, checking and processing of documents, posting to books or reports of original entry and other work which requires working knowledge of that segment of the accounting system to which assigned. Jobs typical of this level are those of clerks assigned to the cash receipts ledger, accounts payable journal or labor costs reporting section where the scope of work is restricted as to the skills and knowledge required of the incumbent. These positions work under general supervision and receive technical advice on difficult problems, especially those which concern processes outside their immediate area of assignment. (75%)

Performs a variety of clerical tasks involved in the procurement of supplies, equipment, commodities or services which require a thorough knowledge of general procurement practices policies and regulations. Duties are of a recurring nature but frequently present problems which are not covered by existing precedents, regulations or instructions and the incumbent must exercise experienced judgment in their resolution. Performs the full range of clerical duties, to include document preparation and files maintenance and in addition, initiates procurement from a number of inter-organizational or commercial sources which are authorized and pre-determined. Considers such elements as delivery dates, economy of price, possibility of substituting items, and compliance with specifications. Incumbent is responsible for the technical and procedural adequacy of his work, referring legal or highly controversial problems to supervisor for solution. (25%)

Performs other related or incidental duties as assigned.
