Newport News establishment placed off-limits to Navy personnel

NORFOLK, Va. – The civilian business establishment Déjà Vu Restaurant and Lounge located at 6128 Jefferson Avenue in Newport News has been placed off-limits today to all Navy personnel by Rear Adm. Rick Williamson, Commander, Navy Region Mid-Atlantic.

The establishment has been put off-limits due to recent events at or around Déjà Vu, including a shooting incident on Tuesday in the parking lot. One of the five injured victims was a Sailor. Additionally, multiple media sources reported that there have been 275 police calls regarding incidents in or around Déjà Vu since January 1.

Removal of the restriction will be considered by the Joint Armed Force Disciplinary Control Board upon presentation of information that satisfactory corrective action has been taken by the establishment. The board's next meeting is scheduled for February 5, 2015.

The off-limits list now reads as follows:

- Déjà Vu Restaurant and Lounge, 6128 Jefferson Avenue, Newport News, Va.
- Envy Car Audio and Design, 117 E. Princess Anne Rd., Norfolk, Va.
- Unwind Hookah Lounge, 731 J Clyde Morris Blvd., Ste B, Newport News, Va.
- Unwind Hookah Lounge, 839 W. 21st Street, Norfolk, Va.
- The Vault, 86 W. Mercury Blvd., Hampton, Va.

- The Vault, 15435-B Warwick Blvd., Newport News, Va.
- The Vault, 4796 George Washington Memorial Highway, Hayes, Va.
- Mellow Smoke Tobacco Shop, 1948 Diamond Springs Road, Virginia Beach, Va.
- Outer Edge Gifts, 760-B J. Clyde Morris Blvd., Newport News, Va.
- Blazin Herbs, 85 W Mercury Blvd., Hampton, Va.

The board works closely with businesses that are considered being placed off-limits to avoid these actions. Mitigation efforts demonstrated by area businesses and communication to the board by the businesses often have favorable results.

Establishments are given the opportunity to notify the JAFDCB in writing that corrective actions have taken place. Failure to respond will result in the board making a request for establishment representatives to appear in person at a formal hearing of the JAFDCB.

The safety and security of all service members is a priority for the Department of Defense. The JAFDCB is an investigative committee composed of members from each military service and civilian advisers, who work with local law enforcement agencies and local businesses to identify conditions which may adversely affect the health, safety, welfare, and discipline of the armed forces.

The establishments will remain on the off-limits list until the next scheduled meeting of the JAFDCB, where it will be determined whether they will remain on the list or whether they will be removed.
