REAR ADMIRAL JOHN C. "JACK" SCORBY, JR. COMMANDER, NAVY REGION MID-ATLANTIC

Rear Adm. Jack Scorby is originally from the Chicago suburb of Naperville, Illinois, but grew up in Manlius, New York. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the State University of New York at Cortland in 1981. He entered the Navy as an aviation officer candidate and received his commission in 1983, and was designated a Naval Flight Officer in 1984.

Scorby also holds a Master of Science degree in Financial Management from the Naval Postgraduate School; a Master of Arts in National Security and Strategic Studies from the College of Command and Staff, U.S. Naval War College where he graduated with distinction; and a Master of Arts degree in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces where he graduated with distinction.

Scorby's operational assignments include two tours each with Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron Two (VQ 2) and Patrol Squadron Special Projects Unit One (VPU 1). Scorby ultimately served as the Officer in Charge of VPU-1 and Commanding Officer of VQ-2.

Scorby's shore and staff assignments include Bureau of Naval Personnel/PERS-43, where he served as the VQ/Force Support detailer; North American Aerospace Defense Command, where he served as a Missile Operations Officer, Chief of the Aerospace Warning Branch, and Executive Assistant to the NORAD Director of Operations; Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV/N13), where he served as the Aviation Officer Community Manager and Deputy, Officer Plans and Policy; Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV/N88), where he served as the EP-3E Requirements Officer and Executive Assistant to the Director; Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Energy, Installations and Environment), where he served as the Executive Assistant. Scorby also served as the Commanding Officer of Naval Air Station Jacksonville.

Scorby's previous Flag assignments include Commander, Navy Region Southeast and Commander, Navy Region Europe, Africa and Southwest Asia. He assumed duties as Commander, Navy Region Mid-Atlantic on March 10, 2016.

Scorby has received a number of personal awards, but is most proud of his unit awards because of the teamwork they represent.
