Postal Crime Alert! Some postal customers are receiving bogus emails about a package delivery or online postage charges. The emails contain a link or attachment that, when opened, installs a malicious virus that can steal personal information from your PC. The emails claim to be from the US. Postal Service. Recipients are instructed to click on a link, open an attachment, or print a label. Like most viruses sent by email, clicking on the link or opening the attachment will activate a virus that can steal information such as user name, password and financial account information. Simply delete the message without taking further action. For more information, call 1-800-ASP-USPS or email spam@uspis.gov.
