NO Pokémon Go - Game play with the new cellphone APP Pokémon Go is not authorized on board the Naval Construction Battalion Center (other than in berthing areas). The game requires players to use their cell phone camera and camera use on board the installation is prohibited unless expressly approved by the installation Public Affairs Officer based on CNRSE guidance and NCBCGPTINST 5530.3A. Federal law 50 U.S.C. 797 creates a misdemeanor penalty for "willful violation" of that regulation. In practical application, there is an unwritten exception that allows photos to be taken inside base buildings for things such as retirements, promotions and reenlistments, etc. All members should be vigilant to ensure Operational Security is maintained.
