

School Liaison

Welcome to the Naval Station Guantanamo Bay community!

The School Liaison Officer (SLO) serves as the communications link between military families with school-aged children, the command, and local DoDDS School. As the “point person” for educational issues, the SLO is here to assist military families in addressing school-related issues.

Whether you are part of the Navy or some other branch of service, active duty or reservist, as well as part of the NAVSTANSGB civilian work force, the SLO is here to ensure that your child has access to the full range of services available in the community. In addition to providing information about the schools, the SLO also works to assist families who choose educational alternatives such as homeschool, independent study, dual credit or online programs.

Most of your questions can be answered by local school administrators and/or office staff. The link to the DoDDS school has been provided to assist you in making important decisions about your child's education. Should you find that the information does not address an issue that is specific to your family, please do not hesitate to contact your SLO for assistance.
