CONUS Limited Evacuation

Travel Orders. Travel orders for members and employees and their dependents will be coordinated at the Region level using TWMS data. Orders will be delivered to the Installation Point of Contact (IPOC) electronically for individual distribution to departments and travelers. Members and employees are responsible for ensuring their personal and family data in TWMS & Navy Family Accountability and Assessment System, (NFAAS) is current and accurate. Answers to the questions that follow are targeted toward CNIC/CNRSE personnel. Personnel and dependents associated with installation tenant commands should contact their chain of command for their specific direction and guidance.

Authorized Allowances. See JTR Chapter 6

The following are a list of Frequently Asked Question (FAQs) and answers regarding a limited evacuation:

You must be on official TDY orders to use your GTCC!

12. I am not eligible for a GTCC, can I get a travel advance via DTS or PSD?
A. Up to 80% of the estimated cost of the evacuation per diem may be paid in advance; however, advances are via direct deposit only and banking information is required at the time of request. Advance payment requests will be arranged by the sponsor/traveler at the local Personnel Support Detachment (PSD). Advance payments may take 48-72 hours to post to the designated account and will only be provided while at the safe haven location. DTS advances are not paid because evacuation orders are issued outside of DTS.

Navy/Marine Corps Relief Society is available if you require a loan. (Military only)

13. If I do get an advance, when do I pay it back?
A. Advances are re-paid upon liquidation of the travel claim. If an overpayment of advances was made, you will receive a letter of indebtedness with instruction on how to repay the debt.

14. Can I get a loan from Navy & Marine Corps Relief Society (NMCRS)?
A. Military only are eligible for NMCRS loans. The member is responsible for direct repayment of a NMCRS loan to NMCRS.

15. If my personal vehicle breaks down during the evacuation, will I be reimbursed for repairs by the government?
A. No. The owner/operator is responsible for adequate and proper maintenance of their POC.

16. Will I be reimbursed for all my family members?
A. For Civilians, only approved dependents listed in your TWMS & Navy Family Accountability and Assessment System, (NFAAS) will be authorized evacuation expenses.

   A. The DoD policy is that the government-sponsored, contractor-issued travel card should be used to pay for all official travel expenses while on TDY/TAD.

24. Can my dependent/spouse use my GTCC?
   A. No. Only the named cardholder is the authorized user of the GTCC.

25. I’m a dependent and my sponsor has to remain behind. What do I use for funds?
   A. You may request a travel advance from the local PSD with your evacuation order or request a loan from NMCRS (military dependents only).

26. Are NAFI employees issued evacuation orders?
   A. Yes, NAFI employees are funded by the activity/authority which ordered their installation’s evacuation.

27. Are NAFI employees authorized a travel advance?
   A. NAFI employees may request a travel advance with their evacuation orders in the same manner as civilian employees.

28. How long can I be on evacuation orders?
   A. The period of evacuation orders are determined by the event and issued based on the Commanding Officer’s authority but in extreme cases will not exceed 180 days.

29. Who determines the evacuation Safe Haven location?
   A. The authorizing official (normally the installation Commanding Officer) will specify the Safe Haven location and authorized travel distance.

30. Will I be reimbursed by the government for evacuation expenses if the county or local government orders an evacuation of my area?
   A. No. The decision of local civil officials is not sufficient for reimbursement. The appropriate military official, normally the installation Commanding Officer, must authorize/order an evacuation, as local civil officials cannot obligate the expenditure of DoD funds.

31. Where can I get updated information regarding a hurricane evacuation before, during, and after the event?
   A. Stay in-tune with your local chain-of-command. Your chain-of-command will provide your installation mustering contact number and may also provide a Command Info Line with important voice messages to all local military and civilian employees and their dependents. Additionally a toll-free hurricane hotline will be published on the evacuation travel order as well as the Southeast Region Operations Center contact number.
