Dear (b) (6),

This is in response to your complaint submitted to the Department of Defense Office of Inspector General, who in turn forwarded it to the Office of the Naval Inspector General on April 8, 2016, in which you alleged that the authority of the Naval Station Newport, Rhode Island has collectively comprise the remaining Supervisory Civilian GS-0083 series Police Officers. You continued by stating that throughout the past year they have unsuccessfully exhausted their internal and external chains of command to resolve ongoing intolerable, hostile and potentially unsafe working conditions at NAVSTA Newport.

We have reviewed the information you provided and determined that your allegations are not appropriate for investigation by this office; therefore, NAVINSGEN will not open an investigation into your complaint.

Your complaint has been forwarded under Navy Inspector General Hotline case number 201601079 to Commander, Navy Installations Command Inspector General.

We are providing the contact information to that office and request that you direct any future correspondence or inquiries, pertaining to this matter, directly to:

Commander, Navy Installations Command (N00G)
ATTN: Inspector General
716 Sicard Street, SE, Suite 1000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20874-5140

You may also contact their office at (888) 850-7559 or via e-mail at CNIC_IG_HOTLINE.FCT@navy.mil.

We appreciate the opportunity to assist you with this matter.
