

Ready and Resilient Navy Families: Suicide Awareness recorded webinar

View the Ready and Resilient Navy Families: Suicide Awareness webinar recorded on 19 September 2013.

The recorded version of the webinar does not have a “Full Screen” button. However, you may use the scroll bars on the bottom and right to get the best view.

Click on the “Play/Pause” button located in the lower left corner of the presentation screen (see blue arrow) to start, pause and restart the presentation at any time. Make sure your speakers are turned on and you can control the volume through the presentation using the volume control bar located in the bottom right of the presentation (see blue arrow).

If you’d like to browse the recording outline and view a certain portion of the presentation, click on the white expand arrow along the left side of the recording (see blue circle).

The screenshot displays a recorded webinar interface within a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The main presentation slide is titled "Suicide Prevention for Family Members" and features a background image of a family and a ship. The presenter is identified as Eileen Pawloski, LCSW, Clinical Counseling Program Analyst at CNIC. The interface includes a "Questions/Comments" window on the right with a list of user messages, a "Participant List" on the left, and playback controls at the bottom. A blue circle highlights the expand arrow on the left side of the recording, and blue arrows point to the "Play/Pause" and "Volume" controls at the bottom.
