RMKS/1. The purpose of this NAVADMIN is to promulgate interim guidance to clarify SAPR reporting requirements for Ombudsman.

2. Ombudsman are official representatives of the command. If a sexual assault is reported to an Ombudsman, it is an unrestricted report. Ombudsman are not authorized to accept restricted reports.

3. Per references (a) and (b), unrestricted reporting triggers command notification. When a sexual assault is reported to an Ombudsman, the Ombudsman will report the incident to the Commanding Officer and the command's Sexual Assault Response Coordinator.

4. Retain this message with reference (c).

5. Point of contact is Ms. Lisa Johnson, Ombudsman Program Analyst, at (202) 433-4701 or via email at lisa.j.johnson1(AT)navy.mil.

6. Released by Vice Admiral S. H. Swift, Director, Navy Staff.//
