Veteran eMentor – Empowering Our Best to Be Their Best

an online mentoring community where transitioning service members can connect with civilian professionals as they pursue meaningful employment in the civilian workforce

Program Highlights for Transitioning Service Members:

- flexible mentoring options: single session or ongoing mentoring; you choose how and when you communicate – ideal for those still on Active Duty getting ready to transition
- experienced mentors: half are veterans who've already made the transition, half are civilians who want to give back or are working for veteran-friendly companies
- resume writing: improve your resume and consequently your job search with help from a mentor already working in your target industry
- networking: Q&A page, discussion forum, and individual access to all of our mentors through our messaging system

Program Highlights for Employers:

- flexible mentoring options: ideal volunteer opportunity for busy professionals
- free advertising: what better way to advertise your company as veteran-friendly than by providing volunteer mentors to assist service members with their transition to the civilian workforce
- recruit experienced leaders: individual access to all of our veterans and transitioning service members' profiles and communication through our messaging system
