

11802-N-TO330-563 ATSUGI, Japan (August 2, 2011) – A youth of Atsugi dunks Lt.j.g. Frederick Wood, the Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi security officer, at National Night Out held on base. National Night Out is a celebration held every year to raise awareness for the fight against crime. The event is held throughout the entire U.S. and is hosted by the community's local police force. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Apprentice Vivian Blakely/Released)

11802-N-TO330-1124 ATSUGI, JAPAN (August 2, 2011) – Master-at-Arms 3rd Class Matthew Young acts as a decoy in a demonstration as Deny, the canine, launches to attack highlighting the Military Working Dog program at National Night Out. National Night Out is a celebration held every year to raise awareness for the fight against crime. The event is held throughout the entire U.S. and is hosted by the community's local police force. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist Seaman Apprentice Vivian Blakely/Released)