

111006-N-VE260-017 ATSUGI, Japan (October 6, 2011) The Prisoner of War/Missing in Action (POW/MIA) table was set up at the Navy Ball held at the Officers club on Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi to honor the service members who cannot dine with the participants due to their sacrifice in the defense of freedom. The theme for this year's Navy Ball on NAF Atsugi was the Centennial of Naval Aviation and Operation Tomodachi. These two events marked a significant point in not only the base's history, but the U.S. Navy as a whole. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communications Specialist 2nd Class Justin Smelley/Released)

111006-N-VE260-297 ATSUGI, Japan (October 6, 2011) Guest speaker Rear Adm. Sean Buck, Commander, Fleet Air Forward, delivers his speech at the Navy Ball held at the Officers club on Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi. The theme for this year's Navy Ball on NAF Atsugi was the Centennial of Naval Aviation and Operation Tomodachi. These two events marked a significant point in not only the base's history, but the U.S. Navy as a whole. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communications Specialist 2nd Class Justin Smelley/Released)

111006-N-VE260-308 ATSUGI, Japan (October 6, 2011) Guest speaker Rear Adm. Sean Buck, Commander, Fleet Air Forward, delivers his speech at the Navy Ball held at the Officers club on Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi. The theme for this year's Navy Ball on NAF Atsugi was the Centennial of Naval Aviation and Operation Tomodachi. These two events marked a significant point in not only the base's history, but the U.S. Navy as a whole. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communications Specialist 2nd Class Justin Smelley/Released)