

120629-N-TO330-156 YAMATO, Japan (Jun. 29, 2012) – Students of Midori No Elementary School of Yamato are presented bowls of green tea made by the students of Shirley Lanham Elementary School (SLES) of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi at the Jiroku-an Tea House in Yamato City, Japan. Since 2006, students of SLES have been participating in the Tea Ceremony with Midori No Elementary school as part a week long program during summer school taught by the Tea Ceremony Association.

(U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Vivian Blakely/Released)

120629-N-TO330-385 YAMATO, Japan (Jun. 29, 2012) – Sumie Maruyama (center) explains the importance of tea at the Jiroku-an Tea House in Yamato as students of Shirley Lanham Elementary School of Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi and Midori No Elementary School of Yamato watch the Tea Ceremony performed. Since 2006, students of SLES have been participating in the Tea Ceremony with Midori No Elementary School as part a week long program during summer school taught by the

Tea Ceremony Association. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Vivian Blakely/Released)