

120714-N-OX321-0243 AYASE, Japan (July 14, 2012) – Zama City and Ayase City firefighters compete against each other during the inaugural Friendship Firefighter Softball Tournament held at Ranger Field on Naval Air Facility Atsugi. The tournament was a way to help recognize the dedication of the firefighters and to further build relationships amongst each other outside of their normal duties. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120714-N-OX321-0600 AYASE, Japan (July 14, 2012) – A Yokohama City Seya-Ward firefighter prepares to hit an oncoming softball during their game against the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force (JMSDF) firefighters at the inaugural Friendship Firefighter Softball Tournament held at Ranger Field on Naval Air Facility Atsugi. The tournament was a way to help recognize the dedication of the firefighters and to further build relationships amongst each other outside of their normal duties. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120714-N-OX321-0763 AYASE, Japan (July 14, 2012) – Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi Security softball team shakes hands with the Zama City firefighter softball team at the inaugural Friendship Firefighter Softball Tournament held at Ranger Field on NAF Atsugi. The tournament was a way to help recognize the dedication of the firefighters and to further build relationships amongst each other outside of their normal duties. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Kegan E. Kay/Released)

120714-N-OX321-0948 AYASE, Japan (July 14, 2012) – Naval Air Facility (NAF) Atsugi Fire Chief Rodolfo Gonzales presents the championship trophy to a representative of the Ebina City firefighter softball team at closing ceremonies of the inaugural Friendship Firefighter Softball Tournament held at Ranger Field on NAF Atsugi. The tournament was a way to help recognize the dedication of the firefighters and to further build relationships amongst each other outside of their normal duties. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Kegan E. Kay/Released)