Welcome to Lake Allatoona

Located only 30 miles north of Atlanta, Ga. Lake Allatoona is situated on the Etowah River, a tributary of the Coosa River. The serene lake and peaceful surroundings offer a respite from the rush of city living. It is one of the most frequently visited Corps of Engineers lakes in the nation. More than six million visitors each year enjoy picnicking and swimming, camping, hunting, fishing, boating, and observing wildlife along the beautiful shoreline.

Since 1956, Navy MWR has proudly served members of the Armed Forces, their families, retirees and DOD personnel by providing the opportunity to rest, relax and recreate at our Navy Lake Site. Conveniently located just off of I-75, the 52 acre site sits on a hillside, nestled among the Georgia pines with a panoramic view and direct access to Lake Allatoona. So whether you're passing through or looking for your next vacation destination, the Navy Lake Site is the perfect place for you and your family!!
