U.S. Pacific Fleet Band to perform for local Hawaii high school

In the first of several planned interactions with local area high schools in Hawaii, the U.S. Pacific Fleet Band will perform with James Campbell High School's Navy Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps on Monday, Jan. 24 at 12:30 p.m.

The Pacific Fleet's ceremonial band will participate in a Pass in Review, with Campbell's NJROTC students in uniform marching and displaying their precision and professionalism.

Continuing its community outreach, the U.S. Pacific Fleet Band next plans to perform with Punahou High School's band in a joint concert on Feb. 26. At 7 p.m.

Under the operational control of the Commander, United States Pacific Fleet, the Pacific Fleet Band carries on the proud tradition of Navy Music in Hawaii, dedicated to providing top quality music and entertainment in support of the U.S. Navy's mission and goals. <http://www.cpf.navy.mil/cpfband/>

The band is under the leadership of bandmaster Lt. Cmdr. David Hodge.
