

OPEN YOUR HOME... AND YOUR HEART TO A CHILD

BECOME A HOME CARE PROVIDER

If you live in military housing or off-base, enjoy children, and need more income, you may have a profitable career caring for children in your home.

Why should I become a Child Development Home Provider?

- Independent work environment
- Great source of income
- USDA Child and Adult Food program – EXTRA$$$$
- Flexibility (drop-in care / evenings)
- Trained Personnel available for assistance
- Certification is transferable.

Information and Resources

Education and Training

- Enhance your child-rearing skills
- CPR/First Aid training
- Child Development/early Childhood Education

NSA Annapolis CDH: Call Katy Moubrey, CDH Monitor at 410-293-9395 or e-mail moubrey@usna.edu for information about how you may become a certified CDH provider.