Attached is information on CHART System to End Operations and FactSheet on moving resumes from CHART to USAJobs. To ensure that you don't miss any job vacancy opportunities, we strongly recommend that you create a USAJOBS account, cut and paste your resume, per the instructions in attachment 1, and begin familiarizing yourself with <http://www.usajobs.gov> as your first stop to locating civilian Navy and Marine Corps jobs. The "Apply Now" button on each vacancy announcement will direct you to the appropriate site (USAJOBS) of where the actual vacancy announcement resides to apply. For more information check out the Employee Toolkit - http://www.public.navy.mil/donhr/Employment/hiringreform/Pages/ApplicantTool kit.aspx

USA Staffing Deployment for Overseas Commands is scheduled effective 12 September 2011. In the next phase of the transition, operation of the DON's on-line application system, CHART will cease. On 12 October 2011, CHART will no longer be available to DON applicants and employees.

You may view the vacancy listing at this website: <https://www.cnic.navy.mil/Marianas/index.htm> or <https://www.cnic.navy.mil/Guam/index.htm> and click on Guam jobs.

This list supercedes all previous lists.

Daily Update - USAJOBS 3.0 Saturday, October 29

Matthew Perry, OPM Chief Information Officer

After continued testing by OPM, USAJOBS 3.0 remains stable and secure, and its capacity is at full-strength.

In addition, agencies are still successfully loading job announcements daily and USAJOBS users have full access to the site with 523,027 applications successfully submitted to date.

OPM is continuing to focus on refining the general and advanced search features so that users are better able to filter results that pinpoint positions of interest within precisely defined geographical areas.
